

Phrasal verbs_ A piece of cake or a hard nut to crack?

Highlight the phrasal verb in each expression and put it into one of the three categories below. When you have finished compare your choices with your partner's.

1. Chop up all your food with a knife and fork before you start eating.
2. Cut back on chocolate as soon as Christmas is over.
3. Eat out in the same place all the time.
4. Eat up all your food because you don't like waste.
5. Gulp down your drinks instead of sipping slowly.
6. Pick at your vegetables.
7. Pig out when you are bored.
8. Plough through every meal like there is no tomorrow.
9. Wait for other people to start eating before you tuck in yourself.
10. Warm up cold coffee in a microwave.
11. Whip up delicious meals with leftovers.
12. Wolf down your food before everyone else at the table.

Things you always do	Things you do from time to time	Things you just don't do

Student's notes:
