

It's all a numbers game

1. Complete the sentences within each square with a number and then provide your own definition of each idiom.

The radio had been stolen, but otherwise we got the car back in _____ piece. Definition:	I have never trusted him. I think he is _____ -faced. Definition:	Taking the train instead of driving was the lesser of _____ evils; at least I could sleep on the way. Definition:	When I arrived, he was on all _____ playing with the children. Definition:
Adam went out dressed up to the _____. Definition:	Natalia and Karolina are very alike- they are like _____ peas in a pod. Definition:	Alex: I've just passed my driving test. Michael: That makes _____ of us! Let's go out and celebrate. Definition:	We really need to come to an agreement here; after all it takes _____ to tango. Definition:
The authorities have _____ tolerance for smoking in public building. Definition:	He looked tired and had a _____ o'clock shadow. Definition:	I was on cloud _____ when my friend Alex came to Madrid to visit me. We had an amazing time together. Definition:	She's just waiting until he is _____ feet under so she can get all his money. Definition:
Wow. You look like a _____ bucks in that suit. Definition:	Tony's had _____ too many at a party last night and was hangover the next day. Definition:	If this doesn't work we are back to square _____. Definition:	After she won the lottery, she went from _____ to hero at work. Definition:

2. Follow the instructions within each square. When you have finished cut up the squares and hand them to one of your classmate(s).

Draw your idiom:	Write a Synonym of your idiom:	Write an Antonym of your idiom:	What does it remind you of?
Create a "fill in the blank" sentence with your idiom:	Give 2 clues to help your partner guess your idiom:	Write a definition of your idiom:	Scramble up the words of your idiom:
Draw your idiom:	Write a Synonym of your idiom:	Write an Antonym of your idiom:	What does it remind you of?
Create a "fill in the blank" sentence with your idiom:	Give 2 clues to help your partner guess your idiom:	Write a definition of your idiom:	Scramble up the words of your idiom: