

Back to life, back to reality

	1	2	3	4	5	6
1	How long have you studied English?	Why do you want to learn and / or improve your English?	What is the most important thing you want to learn?	What do you feel comfortable talking in English about?	Is English necessary for your daily life?	What motivates you to improve?
2	How do you monitor your progress?	How and when do you like to be corrected?	Do you take teachers' feedback on board?	Do you use your classmates' feedback to improve your work?	List 5 things you'd like to do better in English, e.g. understand song lyrics.	What do you find enjoyable when studying a language?
3	What do you find boring when studying a language?	What do you need or want to study more of e.g. vocabulary?	What do you struggle with the most, e.g. listening comprehension?	What do you do outside the class to improve your English?	How much time do you spend learning English a week?	What's the best English course you've taken and why?
4	Have you ever been to an English speaking country?	Do you read in English and if so, what is your favourite genre?	How do you learn best, e.g. alone, in a group etc.?	In what situations has English been really useful to you, e.g. going abroad?	What do you think your level of ability in English is and why?	In what circumstances have you studied English before, e.g. I took a course?
5	How useful were the English courses you've taken?	Have you ever had private tutoring? Do you think it's better than group classes?	What activities were most helpful in your study of English?	List 3 things you'd like your teacher to do to help you with your English?	What are your feelings about English as a language?	What other languages do you speak?
6	According to you, what's the best way to learn a foreign language?	Do you need English for work/study or both?	What didn't you like about the last English class you took?	Do you look for opportunities to speak English outside the classroom?	Do you watch TV in English? How much do you understand?	What kind of homework would you like to do?