

Phrasal verbs can be put off, never forgotten

| Definitions/synonyms | Questions | Example 1 | Example 2 |
|----------------------|--|-----------|-----------|
| | Name two food items that make people put on weight. | | |
| | Name two situations you wouldn't like to be put through . | | |
| | Name two annoying things people do that really put you off . | | |
| | Name two things you have to put up with at school or at work. | | |
| | What is the best way to make sure you put some money away every month? | | |
| | What is the best way to put your ideas across effectively? | | |
| | What would you put the children's lack of motivation at school down to ? | | |
| | Which celebrities would you put forward as possible presidents of your country? | | |
| | Which two things do you most often put off until later? | | |
| | Write down the names of two people who have put you down . | | |