

I will make better mistakes tomorrow

1. First some food for thought:

- "The most valuable thing you can make is a mistake. You can't learn anything from being perfect." Adam Osborne
- "If you don't make mistakes, you are not working on hard enough problems. And that's a big mistake." Frank Wilczek
- "Anyone who has never made a mistake has never tried anything new." Albert Einstein

2. Correct the mistakes in the questions below and then interview your classmates. There is only ONE mistake in each question.

1. Do you ever go to the cinema by your own?
2. What colours do you think suit you good?
3. What's the best way to avoid to eat sugar?
4. Do you think you are easily influenced on your friends and relatives?
5. Do you exercise in a daily basis?
6. What museums are worth to visit in your hometown?
7. Where do you imagine you in 5 years?
8. What would you like to become a professional on?
9. What challenges have you had to face with recently?
10. Do you think the clothes you wear reveals your personality?
11. Do you ignore or confront with your problems?
12. Do you play a music instrument?
13. Is there anything that you can't support doing, e.g. washing the dishes?
14. What's the most close beach to your hometown?
15. Do you think the education system in your country is that good as it could be?
16. Are you more active in the morning or in the night?
