

Beauty is in the eye of the beholder

1. Complete the idioms with the words below and then divide them into two categories: good looking and not so much. When you have finished compare with your partner.

Clean, cut, dressed, dressed, easy, face, face, hair, look, pretty, thin, ugly

- | | |
|---|--|
| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Not a _____ out of place 2. To be as _____ as a picture 3. To be as _____ as sin 4. To be _____ to kill 5. To be _____ (up) to the nines 6. To be _____ on the eye 7. To be _____ on the top | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 8. To _____ up nicely 9. To _____ a dash 10. To have a _____ for a radio 11. To have a _____ only a mother could love 12. To _____ a sight |
|---|--|

Beauty	Beast ;)

2. Complete the idioms with the missing words again (test your memory, don't look at exercise 1) and then interview other students to try and find someone in the classroom:

- Whose dad has gone a bit thin on the _____ in the last few years
- Who looked a _____ after the last party they went to
- Who thinks you should always be dressed to _____ when you go on a date
- Who thinks new born babies are as ugly as _____
- Who once dated someone as pretty as a _____ but without much going on between their ears
- Who feels uncomfortable around people who never have a hair out of _____
- Who never dresses(up) to the _____ when they go out
- Who thinks TV presenters should be easy on the _____
- Who is attracted to a celebrity others think has a face for a _____
- Who knows someone who cuts a _____ in anything they put on
- Who thinks Shrek has a face only a mother could _____
- Who can't be bothered to clean up _____ if they stay at home all da