

I spy with my little eye

1. Complete the idioms with the missing body part(s). Next, divide the expressions into three categories below depending on how easy it would be for you to define them to others. When you are finished, speak to your classmates and ask them to explain to you the definitions that you are unsure of.

- ♥ In the blink of an _____
- ♥ In the public _____
- ♥ To _____ someone up
- ♥ To be the apple of somebody's _____
- ♥ To catch someone's _____
- ♥ To cry one's _____ out
- ♥ To have an _____ for something
- ♥ To keep an _____ on something
- ♥ To pull the wool over one's _____
- ♥ To see _____ to _____
- ♥ To turn a blind _____ to
- ♥ Without batting an _____

I could do it with my eyes shut	There is more to it than meets the eye	Please open my eyes to it

2. Answer the questions below in random order and in as little detail as possible. When you have finished, swap your answers with one of your classmates and try to guess which of their answers correspond to the questions below.

1. Did you often try to pull the wool over your parents' eyes when you were a kid?
2. Is there anyone in your family you don't see eye to eye with?
3. What crimes would you commit without batting an eye, if you knew you would never get caught?
4. What stories would you not like revealed if you suddenly found yourself in the public eye?
5. What types of behavior are you never able to turn a blind eye to?
6. What would you do if, in the blink of an eye, you lost everything you owned?
7. When was the last time somebody really caught your eye?
8. When was the last time you cried your eyes out?
9. Which professions require a great eye for detail?
10. Who keeps an eye on your house when you go away on holiday?
11. Who's the apple of your dad's eye?
12. Would you feel confident eyeing somebody up in a bar?