

A trip down memory lane

Some example questions to get you started (to go on holiday):

Did you have a good time?
 How did you get there?
 How long did you stay there?
 What did you most enjoy about your last holiday?
 Where did you go?
 Who did you go with?

Throw the dice twice.
 First throw, choose a column.
 Second throw, choose a row.

|   | 1                       | 2                                 | 3                              | 4                        | 5                              | 6                               |
|---|-------------------------|-----------------------------------|--------------------------------|--------------------------|--------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| 1 | To admit you were wrong | To argue with a friend            | To arrive home late            | To avoid doing something | To buy something               | To call someone                 |
| 2 | To change something     | To clean one's house              | To complain about something    | To create something      | To criticise someone           | To damage something by accident |
| 3 | To discover something   | To do housework                   | To dress elegantly             | To drink a cocktail      | To drive a car                 | To eat pasta                    |
| 4 | To enjoy something      | To experience something different | To fall down                   | To find money            | To fly to another country      | To forget about something       |
| 5 | To give someone advice  | To go shopping                    | To have a headache             | To help someone          | To invite people to your house | To laugh a lot                  |
| 6 | To order something      | To sleep well                     | To talk to someone interesting | To walk in a park        | To watch a film                | To write a letter               |