

2020 Round-up

"For last year's words belong to last year's language

And next year's words await another voice."

— T.S. Eliot, Four Quartets

Throw the dice twice.
First throw, choose a column. Second throw, choose a row.

1

2

3

4

5

6

1

What did you do this year that you've never done before?

Did anyone close to you give birth?

What would you like to have next year that you lacked this year?

What date from this year will you always remember?

What was your biggest achievement of the year?

What was your biggest failure?

2

What hardships did you face?

Did you suffer illness or injury?

What was the best thing you bought?

Whose behaviour merited celebration?

Whose behaviour made you appalled?

Where did most of your money go?

3

What did you get really excited about?

What song will always remind you of this year?

Are you happier or sadder compared to this time last year?

What do you wish you had done more of?

What do you wish you had done less of?

What was your favourite show?

4

What was the best book you read?

What was your favourite film?

What did you want and get?

What did you do on your birthday?

How would you describe your personal fashion this year?

What kept you sane?

5

Which public figure did you admire the most?

What political issue stirred you the most?

Who did you miss?

What valuable life lesson did you learn this year?

What is the quote that sums up your year?

Who should you thank for what they did for you this year?

6

Is there a skill or quality you have become more certain about?

Which simple pleasure made you happy this year?

What did you change your mind about?

How have you seen yourself grow this year?

What made you laugh the hardest this year?

Who were the three people that had the greatest impact on you this year?